

Teachers' Conference 2010

N Celebrating Diversity

NATESOL represents a range of sectors and areas in the English Language Teaching world from Primary to HE and Private Schools to Prison Education. We have asked a range of speakers to talk on diverse issues in ELT and represent different perspectives on our learning and teaching interests.

Speakers include -

Prof. Alan Maley (Freelance) - The Dividends from Diversity

Mark Krzanowski (University of London) - A world of diversity; ELT in Africa, Asia, The Middle East and Latin America

Sue Argent (Garnet Education) - Preparing students for Higher Education: meeting diverse needs

Dr. Wan Baba (The University of Sheffield) - Literature in language study: Voices from the ESL classroom

David Barker (OUP) - Reading and Writing for ESP Students: Meeting the Challenge

Sam McCarter (Macmillan) - IELTS: Strategies for developing reading skills

Nick Northall (The University of Sheffield) - Motivating EAP students to read more in their free time

Dr. Alaric Rae (Pearson) - Pearson Test of English - Diversifying ELT Tests

plus others to be confirmed

Sat 5th June 2010

Registration: 10.30-11.00am
Conference 11.00am - 5.30pm

£15 for members (concessions) or £25 for non-members, including refreshments, buffet lunch, book displays and prize draw!

FREE COACH FROM MANCHESTER PICCADILLY TRAIN STATION at 9am - please indicate this on registration form

Pre-registration is required. To register and to get further information please go to www.natesol.org and click on 'Conference 2010'